

Appendix C: Native Shrubs of Illinois

Latin name	Common name	Status
Cornus alterniflora	Pagoda dogwood	Native
Cornus racemosa	Gray dogwood	Native
Cornus stolonifera	Red osier dogwood	Native
Corylus americana	Hazelnut	Native
Lonicera canadensis	Fly honeysuckle	Native
Lonicera reticulata	Grape honeysuckle	Native
Prunus americana	Wild plum	Native
Prunus pumilis	Sand cherry	Native
Prunus serotina	Black cherry	Native
Prunus virginiana	Choke cherry	Native
Rhus glabra	Smooth sumac	Native
Rhus hirta	Staghorn sumac	Native
Rubus sp.	"brambles": Red and black raspberry; blackberry;	Native
Salix discolor	Pussy willow	Native
Salix exigua	Sandbar willow	Native
Salix humilis	Prairie willow	Native
Sambucus canadensis	American elderberry	Native
Sambucus racemosa	Red elderberry	Native
Viburnum acerifolium	Maple-leaf viburnum	Native
Viburnum lentago	Nannyberry	Native
Viburnum opulus	Highbush cranberry	Native
Viburnum prunifolium	Blackhaw	Native
Xanthoxylum americana	Prickly ash	Native

Source: Oak Savannas

For additional information on shrubs suited for Northeastern Illinois, go to Conserve Lake County website.